Friday 27th September 2024

Dear Parents, Carers and Governors,

We have definitely turned the corner into autumn with colder, wetter weather. Please can you make sure that children have coats and also that they have names labelled clearly inside. If you have any good quality winter coats that no longer fit, please donate them to school so that they can find new homes.

Upcoming events:

- On Monday at 5pm, all Y4 parents are invited to a meeting to discuss the multiplication tables check, First Holy Communion and their residential visit to Emmaus village.
- On Thursday, not only do we have a special meal at school but we also welcome a very special visitor. Bishop Stephen will be joining us for the afternoon to meet all of the children. Then parents and parishioners are invited in at 2.45pm for a tea or coffee and the chance for an informal chat.

Friday will be a fundraising day for Cafod and we invite the children to come to school in their brightest clothes or accessories! Be as bonny as you can to 'Brighten Up The Harvest!' and try to donate some pennies and pounds to support the good work Cafod does around the world.

- We also welcome trainee teachers into Reception Class, Y2, Y5 and Y6 and two trainee Teaching Assistants who will be gaining experience in some of our classes.

Attendance: Here are the attendance figures for each class this week:

YN	YR	Y1	Y2	Y3	Y4	Y5	Y6
86.8%	90.8%	94.9%	96.6%	94.6%	95.5%	95%	98.3%

FOSa News:

- Please come to the FOSa Annual General Meeting on Friday 11th October at 9am.
- Monster Ball, Thursday 24th October, 6.30-9pm at Pelaw Social Club. Tickets now available!

With very kind regards,

M Robinson

Headteacher
